

Annual Real Estate Trends & Networking Conference

November 4 & 5, 2010

OVERVIEW

The FSU Real Estate Trends & Networking Conference is organized to inform participants of the emerging trends and issues facing the real estate industry. The conference focuses on factors affecting markets in the southeast region of the U.S.

HIGHLIGHTS

Thursday Evening, Nov. 4: The 2010 conference will kick off with an opening dinner / keynote speaker at the University Center Club. The opening dinner will be followed by a jazz reception on the Club's sixth floor.

Friday, Nov. 5: This year's conference focuses on identifying leading strategies, turnaround opportunities, and possible safe havens within the economy. Plenary and concurrent sessions will discuss: ♦ emerging economic trends ♦ capital market conditions ♦ the market for distressed assets ♦ reorganization strategies ♦ the market's perspective on sustainability, and ♦ the opportunities rising out of public investment in transportation and infrastructure. We are pleased to announce that Friday's sessions will be held at the new FSU Conference Center.
